

The map shows France and surrounding regions with red dots marking key locations. Orange lines connect these locations to callout boxes containing images and captions. The callouts include:

- Tour Eiffel: A photograph of the Eiffel Tower in Paris.
- Le Petit Pont japonais (Monet): A painting of a Japanese bridge over a pond.
- L'Atelier du peintre (Courbet): A painting of an artist in his studio.
- La Liberté guidant le peuple (Delacroix): A painting of a woman holding a flag during a battle.
- L'Homme qui marche (Rodin): A bronze sculpture of a man walking.
- La Nuit étoilée (Van Gogh): A painting of a starry night sky over a village.
- Château de Pierrefonds (Viollet-le-Duc): A photograph of a restored medieval castle.
- La Charrette de foin (Constable): A painting of a hay cart in a landscape.
- Promeneur au-dessus de la mer de nuages (Friedrich): A painting of a man walking on a cliff overlooking the sea.
- Viaduc de Garabit (Eiffel): A photograph of a large metal arch bridge.

Geographical labels on the map include: ANGLETERRE, Mer du Nord, Mer Méditerranée, Océan Atlantique, Pays-Bas, Belgique, France, Suisse, Allemagne, and various cities like Londres, Paris, Arles, and Besançon.